PRESS RELEASE

COMFREL’s Observation Activities during Voter List Revision and Registration

Phnom Penh, 14 September 2011- COMFREL is conducting observation activities related to political security and rights during the voter list revision and registration period for the 2012 commune council election.

The observation activities are being conducted in 24 provinces through the deployment of 342 observers. The observation activities include: voter education, surveying the voter list and registration audit, media monitoring and an additional focus on noting misuses of state resources.

Mr. Koul Panha, COMFREL’s executive director, said “the results of the observation prior to 2012 commune council election will contribute to the demand for more fairness and integrity of future elections”.

COMFREL is also administering voter information to voters through its daily radio program from 7.30am to 8.30am through radio FM 105 and through SMS alerts to mobile phone users.

Within this period, COMFREL will be deploying another 260 observers from its network and partners to conduct voter surveys and audit the 2011 voter list. The surveys and audits will be conducted amongst a sample of 8700 voters, drawn from 850 polling stations in 24 capital/provinces.

COMFREL has recruited another 9 observers who are conducting media monitoring of all political parties in the upcoming election. 10 electronic media outlets are being monitored: National Television of Kampuchea (TVK), Cambodian Television Network (CTN), Bayon News TV, National Radio FM 96, National Radio AM 918, Radio FM 105, Radio FM 106.5, Radio Free Asia’s (RFA) Khmer Service, Voice of America’s (VOA) Khmer Service, and Radio France International (RFI)’s Khmer Service.
