URGENT - Volunteer Announcement

Committee for Free and Fair Elections in Cambodia (COMFREL) is a local NGO functioning nationwide since 1995.

COMFREL' strategies are to dedicate contribution towards the promotion of democracy and democratic governance through elections, improved legal and institutional reform, and increased awareness for promoting accountability, transparency and popular participation. One of those is to get public support through media and campaign, in which COMFREL is focusing on vocal media, especially by running "Voice of Civil Society" radio programs.

COMFREL is urgently seeking 7 full-time volunteers to monitor the media coverage of election-related information.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Good knowledge of the Cambodian news, as well as the media and political scenes; knowledge of election and political parties in Cambodia is a plus.
- Strong interest for the Cambodian democratic process, politics and media
- Knowledge of English is a plus
- Computer literate, MS. Words and Excel in particular.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Record media (TV and Radio) to be monitored
- Monitor and analyze the information covered in media related elections, and political parties and fill in the form.
- Write report and data entry of the finding
- Be able to work on weekend when required
- Other tasks as required

Interested candidates should send only their CV and cover letter to COMFREL office #138, St. 122, Sangkat Teuk Laak I, Khan Tuol Kork, Phnom Penh, Tel: (023) 884 150 / (023) 883 967.
